U.S. Patent and Trademark Office PTOL-303 (Rev. 11-03) Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: the document was full considered but is not persuasive. The Remarks document is in reference to Application No. 09/831,440 which is not the application being considered. Page 2 of the Remarks at line 6 makes reference to "enforced" being equivalent to "enforced"...? Reading the remaining portion of the document, all of the arguments appear to be reconsideration of old arguments. Concerning the issue of 35 U.S.C. 101, "tangible embodiment in the practical application of the technological arts", as an example, can be achieved by computer implementation where the methodology is embedded in a storage device..
